

FRANK'S COUNSEL JOINS MOVE TO ADVANCE CASE

Attorney General Warren Grice Tuesday afternoon received a Telegram from Louis Marshall, the New York lawyer associated with Henry C. Peeples and H. A. Alexander in making Leo M. Frank's fight before the United States Supreme Court, in which Mr. Marshall stated that he would be very glad to unite with Mr. Grice in making a motion to advance the Frank Appeal on the Supreme Court Docket so that it may be brought on for argument speedily.
